

MARCH , 2017

Principal consular officer of the U.S. Consulate General in Sapporo pays a courtesy call on OUAVM President

Principal Consular Officer JoEllen Gorg of the U.S. Consulate General in Sapporo paid a courtesy call on President Kiyoshi Okuda on March 2. At that time they talked about measures to encourage Japanese university students to study in the U.S. and utilize the International Visitor Leadership Program offered by the U.S. Embassy.

Principal Consular Officer JoEllen Gorg, Pres. Okuda